TBA Credit Union Deepens Community Commitment with TCAPS Contribution

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich. – In a continued effort to support the education of local students, TBA Credit Union (TBACU) has made its annual contribution to Traverse City Area Public Schools (TCAPS) totaling $17,250 for the 2026–2027 school year.

The donated funds support a multi-faceted initiative that connects both athletics and education at Thirlby Field and throughout the district. Contributions help fund prominent, long-term sponsorship placements at Thirlby Field, including the large permanent scoreboard and a 14th Street banner, enhancing the game-day experience while supporting the facility for years to come.

Funding also extends into the classroom through the sponsorship of branded dry erase markers, helping ensure every student has access to essential tools throughout the academic year. Together, these efforts strengthen school resources, enhance community spaces, and reflect a shared commitment to student success and community engagement.

“Our commitment to education goes beyond the classroom,” said Karen Browne, President and CEO of TBA Credit Union. “When we invest in students, programs, and the spaces that bring people together, we’re investing in the strength and future of our entire community.”
